CORAM : J.N.PATEL &
SMT.R.S.DALVI, JJ.

DATED : 2ND APRIL, 2007

P.C.:

1. Heard.

2. None present for the appellants.

3. The appellants have filed these Letters Patent Appeals impugning the judgment of the learned single Judge which was delivered as a common judgment in group of petitions on 22.06.04.

4. We find that the learned single Judge has protected the rights of the original petitioners who were the appellants before this court.

5. The factual matrix relates to the rehabilitation of the petitioners under the Slum Rehabilitation Act and all the appellants have been provided accommodation in transit camp in Khandwala Complex. The learned single Judge has observed that it is made clear that none of the petitioners will be forcibly evicted unless suitable tenements in camp no.4 is made available to each of the petitioners before this court who have already found to be eligible for alternate accommodation.

6. We, therefore, do not find that the learned single Judge has committed any error or illegality to call for interference. Therefore the Letters Patent Appeals are dismissed. All interlocutory applications / orders are dismissed as infructuous.
